

Anti-Trust Around the World

Helping global organisations comply with anti-trust laws and preventing anti-competitive behaviour

Course Overview

This online training course on anti-trust looks at how global organisations and their associates can prevent anti-competitive behaviour and adhere to competition laws relevant to their location.

It is set in our engaging Take 5 microlearning style and is designed to maximise learner engagement and knowledge retention.

The course will improve learner awareness of issues surrounding competition laws particularly for global organisations and help take the right decisions to minimise the risk.

In particular, learners will understand how to ensure compliance with regulation and prevent risking a breach of anti-trust and competition laws.

Key Learning Points

- What is anti-competitive behaviour?
- Why are anti-trust laws important?
- What is competition suppression and why is it prohibited?
- Why are price fixing and collective boycotting illegal?
- What is the importance of a company anti-trust policy?
