

Conflict of Interests

Train your staff on managing the risks of conflicts of interests and build a culture of compliance

Course Overview

This immersive course explains what conflicts of interest are, how to determine what constitutes a conflict of interest and whether you need to report a potential conflict of interest to your organisation.

Learners are guided through a fictitious organisation to hear the employees' concerns and advise them on whether they have a true conflict of interest or not.

Once the learner has visited the various departments, they will be asked to answer any questions the employees have about declaring a conflict of interest and the conflicts of interest register.

Key Learning Points

- What constitutes as a potential conflict of interest
- Why do conflicts of interest affect organisations negatively
- Why should conflicts of interest be reported and registered
- How to check the conflicts of interest register
- How can potential conflict of interests be perceived by other employees
- How can organisations proactively prevent conflicts of interest
