

Don't Get Burnt

The fire alarm is going off! Take our challenge to evacuate your building safely

Course Overview

Can you hear the fire alarm? Looks like it's time to evacuate the office.

In our Don't Get Burnt fire safety short course, learners are challenged to make the correct decisions to safely evacuate the building during a fire alarm. They collect a safety token for each safe decision they make, ensuring they and their colleagues make it out in a fast and orderly way.

The challenge format makes the fire safety message engaging and accessible, prompting learners to translate the lessons learnt into the context of their own workplace.

Key Learning Points

- What to do when you hear a fire alarm
- How to deal with a blocked exit
- How to select a safe evacuation route
- What a safe evacuation process looks like
