

Data Protection Essentials

Enable your staff to understand and comply with the latest data protection legislation.

Course Overview

The UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and accompanying Data Protection Act 2018 define the rules that organisations must follow when they process personal data. It also defines the penalties they can face if they fail to do this. Are your employees up to speed with the latest legislation?

Our Data Protection Essentials eLearning course has been designed to provide your staff with the practical knowledge and skills that they need to be compliant with GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018. This eLearning course features detailed explanations of the key principles and case studies exploring how the law applies in practice, and a unique 'ask the expert' feature for staff who need to know more. Data Protection Essentials is the most comprehensive, flexible and cost-effective way of enabling everyone to stay on the right side of the law.
