

Implementing Reasonable Adjustments

Enable staff to identify issues and take practical steps to ensure people living with disabilities are treated fairly.

Course Overview

Making reasonable adjustments to ensure disabled people aren't unfairly disadvantaged or excluded isn't just a "nice thing to do" – it's a legal duty.

Our Implementing Reasonable Adjustments online training course provides staff with a practical understanding of what the law means when it talks about "disability" and "reasonable adjustments". And it gives everyone clear guidance on how to identify and implement reasonable adjustments effectively. By deploying the course, you'll help to ensure your organisation fulfils its legal obligations and treats disabled people fairly.
